Not sure if someone qualifies? Those who have attended “I Promise” training and have participated in a one-on-one session with the President and CEO are eligible for an “I Promise” Award. Ask yourself if the person you are nominating takes actions that demonstrate their commitment to the Promise they made. They promise to embody:

- Respect – Building relationships by listening to your concerns and taking appropriate action.
- Care – Connecting compassionately by understanding and focusing on your needs and making them my priority.
- Competence – Being reliable by sharing compassion and bringing comfort to all.
- Joy – Showing recognition by honoring your individuality and serving you in the manner of St. Francis.

The Reward and Recognition Committee regularly reviews all nominations and selects worthy recipients to receive this special honor on a quarterly basis.

Nominating someone who is deserving of this recognition will give us a chance to let them know we are thankful for their service, share their story, and appreciate all they do!
